

I have just been informed that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This would be a dramatic example of electioneering from a partisan position. And, with a title like "Stolen Honor", it is no doubt bent on performing a character assassination on Kerry just prior to the election.

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, is it not obligated by law to serve the public interest? Obviously when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

You have the power to stop Sinclair's planned actions. Please don't allow this media giant to distort the public's image of Senator Kerry in this obvious political ploy to dissuade people from voting for him. Thank you.
